New Regional Business Development Executive Joins North American Risk Services

By Newswire | April 14, 2011

Altamonte Springs, FL, April 14, 2011 — O.L. Anderson joins North American Risk Services (NARS) as a Regional Business Development Executive. Anderson brings more than 30 years of experience to his new position with NARS. His most recent role was as senior vice president, business development for Crawford Claims Services.

"We are excited to add O.L.'s tremendous business development skills to our team," says Robert Ruryk, President and CEO of NARS. "He's demonstrated success in acquiring new clients and growing business with existing clients. We look forward to the contributions he will make as NARS continues to expand our client base and services nationally."

While at Crawford and Company, Anderson served in a variety of increasingly senior executive roles. His most recent positions focused primarily on business development and sales team leadership. A graduate of East Carolina University, Anderson also has earned the AIC designation from the Insurance Institute of America.

Headquartered in Altamonte Springs, Fla., NARS (www.narisk.com) provides nationwide claims, data and risk management TPA services to businesses, insurers, reinsurers and brokers throughout the United States. NARS is known for the experience and expertise of its employees and the application of those skills in controlling its customers' loss and administrative costs. NARS also provides its customers with a diverse array of ancillary services including auditing, medical cost management, recovery specialization and a state-of-the-art, web-based information system that is easily shaped to meet each customer's specific needs.
